

CFPB Ambassadors Program

OVERVIEW

The Partnership for Public Service (Partnership) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization that works to revitalize our federal government by inspiring a new generation to serve and transforming the way the government works. Sponsored by CFPB in conjunction with the Partnership, the CFPB Ambassadors program provides a paid opportunity for students across the country to promote opportunities within the agency as part of this mission.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND EXPECTATIONS

Student ambassadors will work approximately five hours per week throughout the academic year. Ambassadors will participate in regular webinars and phone calls with a Partnership coach and must complete a variety of activities, including:

- Beginning and end-of-year meetings with career services
- Conduct meetings with faculty/staff members
- Conduct meetings with student group leaders
- Implement general marketing activities
- Organize presentations or workshops
- Hold one-on-one or small group advising sessions
- Publish articles or blogs or post on campus social media
- Generate a list student and campus contacts
- Conduct regional outreach to a nearby college/university (if applicable)
- Participate in a campus career fair (if applicable)

BENEFITS AND COMPENSATION

CFPB ambassadors can expect a variety of benefits from their participation in the program, including:

- $2,000 stipend ($1,000 per semester)
- Develop in-demand skills
- Bolster your experience and resume
- Stay in contact with CFPB
- Build networks of academic and professional contacts
- Receive individualized feedback and assistance from a Partnership coach

QUALIFICATIONS

- Enrolled as a student in an accredited degree granting college or university in the United States for the 2016-17 academic year. (Note: You may not study abroad at any point during your tenure as an ambassador.)
- Able to participate for the entire 2016-17 academic year
- Exhibit a commitment to public service, possess strong interpersonal and communication skills, demonstrate the ability to manage and prioritize multiple and varied assignments, be involved and show leadership in extracurricular activities
