About

Presidential Executive Orders (EO): EO 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Throughout the Federal Government, EO 14035, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility in the Federal Workforce, Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility in the Federal Workforce, and EO on Advancing Educational Equity, Excellence, and Economic Opportunity through Historically Black Colleges and Universities place heavy emphasis on the importance of partnering with the underserved communities to reflect their voices and perspectives in the work of Federal agencies. Building upon these guidelines the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization in collaboration with Office of Civil Rights and Diversity, Office of International Affairs and the Internal Revenue Service are hosting a Virtual Job Fair introducing Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) and Minority Serving Institutions (MSIs) students, recent alumni and other job seekers.

During this event you will have the opportunity to engage with Treasury and IRS Recruiters, learn about the various positions being offered, and to ask questions you have about our positions and the hiring process
